Stands of trees such as Acacia mangium, Jagus, Klinki Pine and Kapur bukit can also be found.

An attractive feature of the Berakas Forest recreation Park is its location besides the sea.

It is 18 kilometres from the capital and has an area of forest reserve inclusive of the park about 348 hectares. As with other recreational parks, essential facilities are also catered for visitors. Berakas Forest Recreation Park is popular for its camping grounds and had been used by many.

- KAMPONG AYER CULTURAL AND TOURISM GALLERY (KACTG)

Built with a style replicating a grand Kampong Ayer house and with a distinctive observation tower that gives visitors a bird's eye view of the water village and its surroundings, the KACTG has become the latest tourist attraction in Bandar Seri Begawan. There are galleries containing background information of the water village from its historical origins until its present day.

- THE ARTS GALLERY (GALERI SENI)

The Art Gallery is housed in the Old Custom Building by the Dermaga Diraja in Bandar Seri Begawan - a solid, windowless building that has been converted into the centre of the Brunei art scene. The venue faces the heritage site of Kampong Ayer and visitors get to hear and see the speed boats that bounces back and forth from the water village to the city. Inside the gallery, it is a simple set-up where wooden partitions are used to create 'rooms' within the rectangular space. Visitors are allowed to flow through the 'rooms' and appreciate the myriad of paintings in various media and 3 installations created specially for this exhibition. It is the first time that a local exhibition has included a participative installation - entitled Creat'art'ive Tree - that allows the public to participate and leave their own artistic mark on the display. Another installation entitled 'Nasi Katok', features a sole human as part of the creation, introducing the concept of 'live' art that broadens, challenges and questions society's traditional view of art.
