FACTS

'Darussalam'

'Darussalam' was added to the country's name by the third ruler, Sultan Sharif Ali, revered in history as the first Sultan to build a mosque in the country and governing according to Islamic principles. The term, which is Arabic (and consequently, so was Sultan Sharif Ali!), means 'Abode of Peace'.

Islam

Brunei has a rich Islamic heritage, and its practices are regularly observed by the people as the country's official religion. The nation has some of the region's most beautiful and iconic mosques, with ancient artifacts of the country's history. Muslim visitors and non-Muslims are welcomed to experience the Islamic religion through the lives of the people here!

National Philosophy (Malay Islamic Monarchy)

When Brunei celebrated its independence, it affirmed its identity as a Malay and Islamic state governed by a monarchy. The philosophy of the Malay Islamic Monarchy, known as 'Melayu Islam Beraja (MIB)' in Malay, encapsulates Brunei's culture and beliefs in a nutshell, with Malay traditions, Islamic laws and values and a mutual respect between the monarchy and the subjects.

Location & Population

Brunei has a population of 421,300, with an incredibly colourful mix of cultures! The country has four districts and is located on Borneo island, between the East Malaysian states of Sabah and Sarawak. It also has a 160km long coastline of sandy beaches, all of them a perfect spot to gaze at Brunei's golden sunsets.

FACTS

Language and Culture

The official language of Brunei is Malay, or Bahasa Melayu. However, English is also widely spoken here, so no need to worry about a communication barrier! Each ethnic Malay group also has its own native language, and the different cultures coexist harmoniously through a healthy respect and tolerance for one another.

National Day

Brunei celebrates National Day on February 23rd, in the very place that it declared independence: the Taman Haji Sir Muda Omar 'Ali Saifuddien, right in the heart of the capital. It's also one of the best times to visit Brunei, as the city truly comes alive for the annual National Day celebrations!

Weather

Sunny with a chance of showers would be the best way to describe the weather in Brunei. Clear, blue skies are pretty much a daily phenomenon, but do take note that the wettest months are from October to January and from May to July. An up-to-date, daily forecast of the weather can be found here.

Oil & Gas

In 1929, oil was first discovered in Seria, in the Belait District, and marked the start of the economy's upward trajectory for Brunei. In 1991, that first oil field produced its billionth barrel and a monument was built near the original site to mark the achievement! Thanks to the oil and gas industry, the people have enjoyed significant benefits such as practically free healthcare and an affordable housing system.

'Ambuyat'

Brunei's national dish was borne out of a period of hard times. 'Ambuyat', which is made of sago from the rumbia tree, was a staple food during World War II, when rice and meat were too expensive. Nowadays, it's served in several restaurants as a local delicacy with sauces on the side and eaten with a form of wooden chopsticks called 'candas'.

BANDAR SERI BEGAWAN

Vibrant yet peaceful. Both modern and timeless. A fusion of majestic opulence and traditional respect.

Bandar Seri Begawan is the centre of Brunei's commerce, finance and government. In many ways, it is also the heart of Brunei's cultural landscape, housing some of the nation's most revered landmarks. The city's breathtaking Sultan Omar Ali Saifuddien Mosque is a stunning tribute to the nation's deep-rooted faith, while the truly Bruneian Kampong Ayer water village offers a glimpse of the nation's quaint Asian charm.

Beneath Bandar Seri Begawan's lavish adornments, gold towers, sparkling fountains and colorful mosaic tiles, lies a city steeped in a quiet respect, grounded in Islamic tradition, and exuding a sense of peace that makes it one of Asia's most distinctive capital cities.

BRUNEI-MUARA

Contemporary luxuries abound. Rustic surprise await.

Though small in size, Brunei-Muara is of great importance to the nation as the district housing Brunei's capital, Bandar Seri Begawan. As such, it is usually the first stop of any visitor to Brunei and one of the most memorable. Outside the capital lie some of the nation's most world-renowned attractions.

The golden spires adorning Istana Nurul Iman, home to the nation's revered monarch, His Majesty The Sultan, form a striking backdrop for a spectacular Bruneian sunset. The lavish residence has achieved legendary status as the largest palace in the world and features a unique blend of contemporary and traditional Islamic architecture. But there is nothing traditional – or expected – about Brunei Muara's other famous attraction, Jerudong Park Playground, the state-of-the-art amusement park that was once the playground of royalty.

BRUNEI AT A GLANCE

TUTONG

Sparsely populated. Ethnically diverse. A different side of Brunei.

While only a half-hour drive from the urban centre of Bandar Seri Begawan, Tutong offers a glimpse of the diverse cultures and unique lifestyles of rural Brunei, making it one of the nation's most distinctive districts.

Tutong is abundant in natural beauty, from the white sands and rocky outcroppings of Pantai Seri Kenangan beach all the way inland to the scenic and somewhat mysterious feel of Tasek Merinbun a serpentine lake surrounded by swamps and 15th century burial grounds. But the true draw of Tutong is its people. Local color abounds at the Ruma Budaya Cultural Village, showcasing the five ethnic Bornean group that make up the district's diverse population.

TEMBURONG

The call of a proboscis monkey. The thrill of a speedboat cutting through jungle waters, Unspoiled, Untamed, Unbelievable. Early European explorers told tales of the exotic wonders found on the island of borneo. Rare orchids with blooms as large as dinner plates. Elusive monkeys with long, curved noses. Rivers that snake through uncharted forests. And green verdant shades never seen before. This is temburong and all it beholds the adventurous traveler today.

Temburong is a living tribute to Brunei's dedication to preserving one of the world's most diverse eco-system. The Ulu Temburong National Park offers visitors a peek at a world untouched by man, from above or below the forest canopy. The simple culture of the Bornean long house community can also be seen – a complete and unforgettable borneo experience.

BELAIT

Birthplace of the nation's wealth, Home of the oil industry. Brunei economic heartland.

Behind the glitter of Brunei's legendary wealth lies the district of Kuala Belait. Seat of the nation's oil and gas industry, producing the country's main export commodity. While the economy today is slowly diversifying to include manufacturing services and tourism, the real "gold" of Brunei flows deep below the ground in Belait.

To see where it all began, visit the town of Seria to see rows of the affectionately-named "nodding donkeys" which pump the lifeblood of Brunei's economy from the oil-rich heart of Belait. Seria's Oil & Gas Discovery Center provides an up close view of the inner workings of the nation's main industry, and the visually striking billionth Barrel Monument immortalizes the industry's accomplishments through contemporary architectural forms.
